324. A lot of fine coins; Half Rupees, Quarter Rupees, 2 and 1 Anna pieces and Half Annas, forming a beautiful collection, with illustrations and translations to each; 16 pieces; all perfect.

NOTE.— The entire lot of Oriental Coins just described should be purchased for some public collection. The careful pen-and-ink drawings, and learned translations which accompany each coin, would add much to the value of the collection as a whole. The compiler has taken a good deal of trouble to rescue the slips on which the translations were written, from the mass of rubbish in which he found them, and to place each one in its proper connection with the coin for which it was originally intended.
